READY·TO·USE ILLUSTRATIONS OF MEN'S HEADS

TOM TIERNEY

Artists, illustrators, designers and anyone in need of a masculine rendering for a catalog, flyer or brochure will appreciate this clip-art offering of 300 crisp black-and-white drawings of men's heads and faces. All are suitable to a host of advertising and graphic design uses; all are copyright-free and immediately usable.

Men in cowboy hats and fishermen's caps, in parkas and ski goggles, in tuxedos; men having their hair trimmed and beards clipped, lighting pipes and cigars, playing darts; men on the phone, at a desk or in contemplation—every conceivable pose, setting and clothing style is rendered in this virtually inexhaustible collection of male portraiture. Heads are depicted in profile, three-quarter view and full face—many include useful frames and borders—and most are rendered in several sizes to eliminate the need for statting. Glossy repro-quality paper assures the best reproduction. Nothing could be simpler or easier.

Noted illustrator Tom Tierney has drawn upon his years of advertising experience in creating this handy, practical and affordable clip-art collection.

Original Dover (1982) publication. 300 black-and-white illustrations (including duplicates in various sizes). 64pp. printed one side only. 8¼ x 11. Paperbound.

THE DOVER CLIP ART SERIES

This book is a title in the Dover Clip Art Series. The copyright-free art in these books may be cut out and used directly, without statting. The 32 sheets in each volume are more varied and attractive, easier to use, and far less expensive than any comparable sheets now being sold.
